ACC Launches New Member Recognition Program

Alexandria, VA – The Airport Consultants Council (ACC) is pleased to announce a new Member Recognition program. This program recognizes member companies that have been a part of the organization for 10, 20, and 30+ years. The program was announced by the 2016 ACC Board of Directors Chair Don Bergin, vice president at Blast Deflectors, at the 2015 ACC 37th Annual Conference and Exposition in Newport Beach, California. During the annual ACC meeting, 30+ year members received recognition plaques, and 10+ and 20+ year members were given honorable mention.

"ACC has a rich history going back more than 35 years," said Don Bergin. "It is with great enthusiasm that we acknowledge member companies that have demonstrated a long term commitment to the association."

"In standing up the Member Recognition program, it was great seeing that we have 108 member companies with 10 years or more of participation in ACC," said ACC President T.J. Schulz.
